

PRAISING GOD IN A STORM

The southeast coast of Texas is familiar with storms. Every year from summer time to the beginning of fall, these months have been declared hurricane season. These storms always bring death and destruction. These months are spent watching and praying that no storms comes our way. The Apostle Paul showed us that we should praise God in a storm. Text is Acts 27:17-44.

I. Storms are sometimes avoidable..... Acts 27:10

- _ Listen to the word of God. What you hear in the ear, preach.. (Mat.10:27)
- _ Steps of a good man are ordered...(Ps. 37:23)

II. Storms have to be rode out..Acts 27:15

- _Endure until the end shall be saved (Mat. 24:13)

III. Storms have names..Acts 27:14

- _Alicia, Bertha, Carla(Hurricanes)
- _What's yours ? (Sickness, Marital Problems, Financial Problems)

IV. Praise in a Storm....Acts 27:22,25

- _Praise shall continually be in my mouth (Ps 34:1)
